Speaker: Carol Taylor, LCSW has practiced social work for over 30 years. As a consultant, facilitator and trainer, she has worked with professionals and lay persons in exploring the joy of working with elders, aging well, understanding difficult end-of-life issues, memory loss, caregiving challenges and self-care for professionals. In 2013, Carol was recognized as the NSAW Social Worker of the year for the state of Wyoming. An inspired speaker, compassionate teacher and enthusiastic presenter, Carol draws from life experiences of those whom she has cared for and loved.
